Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

To maintain law and order;

To foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism;

To preserve the memories and incidents of our association in all wars;

To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the Community, State and Nation;

To combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses;

To make right the master of might;

To promote peace and good will on earth;

To safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of Justice, Freedom and Democracy; To consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

CONSTITUTION
ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be The American Legion at Woodbridge, Botts-Payne-Murphy Memorial Post 364, of Virginia, to be known as Woodbridge Post 364.

ARTICLE II – NATURE

SECTION 1. The American Legion is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect or increase liability for military or police service. Rank shall not exist in the Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any Legion meeting, unless he is, on active duty with some branch of the military service.

SECTION 2. The American Legion shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles or the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preference.

ARTICLE III – OBJECT

The object of this Post shall be as stated in the Preamble of the Constitution of The American Legion.

ARTICLE IV – ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility for membership in this Post shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

ARTICLE V – POST OFFICERS

SECTION 1. This Post shall elect annually a COMMANDER, FIRST VICE COMMANDER, SECOND VICE COMMANDER, THIRD VICE COMMANDER, FINANCE OFFICER, CHAPLAIN, ADJUTANT, JUDGE ADVOCATE, SERGEANT-AT-ARMS, and an EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER for each two hundred (200) members, or major fraction thereof, of the Post.

SECTION 2. The Post Commander shall appoint annually a POST HISTORIAN, SERVICE OFFICER, ATHLETIC OFFICER, COMMUNICATION OFFICER, and others as needed.

ARTICLE VI – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

There shall be an Executive Committee which shall consist of:

SECTION 1. VOTING MEMBERS: the immediate Past Commander, the elected officers and one elected executive committee member-at-large for each two hundred (200) members or major fraction thereof, of the Post, House and other members as needed.

SECTION 2. NON-VOTING MEMBERS: the appointed officers, and one (1) non-voting member, so designated, by the respective organizational membership from both American Legion Auxiliary Unit 364 and the Sons of The American Legion Squadron 364. The non-voting members of the Executive Committee are authorized to participate in the debate thereof motions introduced by voting members.

ARTICLE VII – FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year shall be from July 1 to June 30.

ARTICLE VIII – CHARTER MEMBERS

Members who joined the Post prior to the grant of its charter by the American Legion National Commander on December 4, 1961 shall be known as charter members.

ARTICLE IX – AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

SECTION 1. This Post recognizes an auxiliary organization to be known as the Auxiliary Unit of the Woodbridge Post 364, The American Legion. The Auxiliary Unit attached to this Post shall bear the Post's name and number, Botts-Payne-Murphy Memorial Unit 364, as chartered by the National organization of the American Legion Auxiliary.

SECTION 2. Membership in the Auxiliary shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary.

SECTION 3. The Auxiliary shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles or for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office of preference.

SECTION 4. The Auxiliary shall be an independent Unit, attached to this Post, and shall, at all times, be subject to the regulations set forth by the Department and National levels of the American Legion Auxiliary. The Unit members, in using the Post Home and Post facilities, are subject to the House Rules and/or regulations as issued by this Post.

SECTION 5. This Post expects its auxiliary unit to participate in and contribute to the accomplishment of the aims and purposes of The American Legion, and expect it to work with the Post in promoting harmony between the organizations.

ARTICLE X – AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a Post membership meeting, provided the proposed amendments have been submitted to the Post's Constitution and By-Laws Committee; and provided the proposed amendments shall have been read at the previous Post membership meeting. The effective date of any approved amendment shall be the date of its approval, unless a motion is approved by majority vote to establish a later effective date.

SECTION 2. This Constitution shall be automatically amended to conform to the National and Department Constitution and By-Laws of The American Legion.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SECTION 1. Post Governance - The government and management of the Post shall be entrusted to the Post Executive Committee.

SECTION 2. Meetings - The newly installed Executive Committee shall meet for organization and such other business as may come before it at the call of the Post Commander before the first regular July Executive Committee Meeting. Thereafter, it shall meet on the first (1st) Tuesday of each month, and as often as said commander deems necessary.

SECTION 3. Annual Budget and Bonding - The Executive Committee shall review and approve the proposed annual budget and amendments thereto submitted by the Finance Committee before presentation to the Post for final approval. It shall approve proposed expenditures for unbudgeted items over Five Hundred Dollars ($500) before presentation to the Post for final approval. All proposed expenditures for unbudgeted items over $500 must be submitted to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall also require adequate bond for all persons having custody of Post funds.

SECTION 4. Post Affairs - The Executive Committee shall hear the reports and recommendations of the elected officers and, as requested, from committee chair, and shall have charge of and be responsible for the management of the affairs of the Post.

SECTION 5. Minutes - A report of the business conducted by the Executive Committee and the General Membership from their prior month's meetings shall be made at each general Post meeting and offered to the Post for approval. This report shall be constituted by the reading of the minutes or dissemination to the General Membership in digital or hardcopy form. Upon approval, the current minutes will be filed and accessible for future use. The minutes will incorporate the wording of all motions made to the Executive Committee or the General Membership, whether the motion was seconded, and the results of the vote on that motion (passed/failed by voice vote/ballot).

SECTION 6. Vacancies - A vacancy which exists among the Executive Committee or Elected Officers for any cause other than the expiration of a term of office, shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the committee. A person so elected shall hold office for the unexpired term of the member whom they succeeded. If a vacancy develops for any reason among the officers elected, but not installed, the Executive Committee shall fill that vacancy by the vote of a simple majority of those members currently in office. Should the Commander-elect, for any reason, resign or be unable to fulfill the duties of the Commander, prior to installation, the First Vice Commander-elect shall assume command in accordance with his duties set forth in ARTICLE II – DUTIES OF OFFICERS, SECTION 2.a.

SECTION 7. Removal - The Executive Committee shall have the authority to remove any officer or Executive Committee Member who is absent from their post without just cause for a continuous period of three (3) months, for inefficiency, or for just cause. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of said committee is necessary to effect such removal.

SECTION 8. Good Conduct and Discipline - The Executive Committee shall receive a report during the Executive Meeting of any discipline and good conduct among the members of the Post.

SECTION 9. Special Meetings - Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by the Post Commander or a formal request of at least three (3) members of the Executive Committee. The Commander will notify the Executive Committee membership and convene a meeting within five business (5) days of receipt of request.

SECTION 10. Quorum - A simple majority of the voting members of the Executive Committee present at any Executive Committee meeting shall constitute a quorum. Each voting member of the Executive Committee, regardless of the number of qualifying elected positions held, is entitled to one (1) vote.

SECTION 11. General Membership Supremacy - Delegation of these authorities and/or functions to the Post Executive Committee shall not be intended to usurp the powers of the membership through the General Membership meeting.

ARTICLE II – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Duties of the Post Commander – It shall be the duty of the Commander to preside over all Post and Executive Committee meetings; to preserve order and to enforce strict observance of the constitutional by-laws; to appoint members of the committees, unless otherwise provided for in these by-laws; to serve as ex-officio member of all committees except the nominating committee; and to prescribe any and all other special duties for other officers and committees. The Commander shall not vote except by ballot, but may have the deciding vote in cases of tie.

SECTION 2. Duties of the Vice Commanders

SECTION 2.a. The First Vice Commander shall assist the Commander in the discharge of their official duties and shall assume the duties of the Commander in their absence or disability or when called upon to do so by the Post Commander. The First Vice Commander shall have oversight responsibility for the Post membership program.

SECTION 2.b. The Second Vice Commander shall assist the Commander in the discharge of their official duties and shall assume the duties of the Commander in the absence of both the Commander and First Vice Commander. SECTION 1.g. Membership Committee – The Membership Committee shall be in charge of all matters pertaining to the membership program of the Post, including the receiving of membership dues and applications for membership, requests for transfer or requests for reinstatements, which shall be presented to the regular meeting for vote. Establishment of eligibility shall be determined by the Membership Committee.

SECTION 1.h. Sons of The American Legion (SAL) Committee – The SAL Committee shall have supervision over the operation of the Post's Squadron of the Sons of The American Legion. The SAL Committee shall act as a supervisory committee for the SAL Squadron in connection with its organization, proper functioning, activities, recreational programs and educational progress.

SECTION 1.i. Ways and Means Committee – The Ways and Means Committee shall be responsible for investigating the ways and developing the means by which resources necessary to the operation of the Post and its programs may be secured. The Ways and Means Committee will act on its own initiative, at the request of a chair of a committee, or may be tasked by the Commander or Executive Committee. The Ways and Means Committee shall develop a five-year plan for the Post with measurable goals and shall address weaknesses, strengths of the facilities and membership, and to address trends in a changing landscape, to have a proactive view of future operations beyond the maintenance of the post by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 1.j. Bingo Committee - The Bingo Committee shall be responsible for conducting the Post bingo program and regularly scheduled bingo events for the advantage of the Post. The committee will ensure that the Post bingo program and events are maintained and conducted as directed by the Executive Committee and in full compliance with the applicable State and County laws, regulations and guidelines.

The committee shall review the Post bingo program on an annual basis and report to the Executive Committee, no later than the May Executive Committee meeting, the findings of said review and their recommendation, if applicable. The Bingo Committee has the authority to temporarily or permanently, change the content of the regularly scheduled bingo events providing said change(s) does not, or do not, permanently affect the financial considerations of the regularly scheduled bingo events and must be presented to, and approved by, the Executive Committee.

The Bingo Committee shall consist of the appointed Chair, Ways and Means Committee Chair, Post Finance Officer, Second Vice Commander, and all current bingo managers.

SECTION 1.k. Awards and Recognition Committee – The Awards and Recognition Committee is responsible for the selection and recommendation, where appropriate, of nominations for Post, District and Department awards. General Membership may make recommendations to the Post Commander of nominations for the annual Post Legionnaire of the Year award each April. The committee may initiate other award recommendations and nominations for recognition at a level less than that of Honorary Lifetime Membership, the highest award given by the Post.

SECTION 1.l. Major Construction and Renovation Committee – The Major Construction and Renovation Committee shall be responsible for developing plans and costs related to any expansion, modernization or renovation of the Post Home. The committee will include (at a minimum) the Third Vice Commander, the Finance Officer, the chair of the Ways and Means Committee and Major Construction and Renovations Committee. Proposals for expansion, construction, modernization, or renovation that change the current structural layout or utility of the Post Home shall be approved by the General Membership. Major construction or renovation projects approved by the General Membership requiring change orders after the 15% architectural design review phase must be submitted to the Executive Committee for review and approval. If the change order requires an increase over the project's approved funding, it shall be submitted to the General Membership for approval.

SECTION 2. Finance Committee

SECTION 2.a. The Finance Officer shall chair the Finance Committee. The Assistant Finance Officer shall chair the committee in his absence. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Finance Officer, Assistant Finance Officer, Third Vice Commander, Bingo Committee Chair, Post Adjutant and the Building and Grounds Committee Chair, and Ways and Means Committee Chair. Additional members may be appointed to the Finance Committee at the discretion of the Commander.

SECTION 2.b. The Finance Committee shall be charged with the preparation of an annual budget and the handling of all Post funds, however appropriated. The budget shall cover the period from July 1 to June 30 of the fiscal year. Each committee chair and appointed officer shall submit estimates to the Finance Committee no later than July 1 for the following year. The Finance Committee shall submit the proposed budget by the August Executive Committee meeting for approval before presenting the budget to the Post for final approval. At the request of the Executive Committee, the Finance Committee shall recommend unbudgeted Post expense.

SECTION 3. Auditing Committee

SECTION 3.a. The Second Vice Commander shall chair the Auditing Committee. The Commander will appoint, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, a technically competent audit committee of three (3) members. No member of the Finance Committee may be appointed to the Audit Committee.

SECTION 3.b. The Audit Committee shall review the financial records of the Post no less than once a quarter and report its findings and/or recommendations to the Executive Committee for its consideration and/or approval.

SECTION 3.c. The Audit Committee shall budget and coordinate an annual audit of the Post financial records by a competent outside auditor. The annual audit should take place during the first quarter of each fiscal year and cover the previous fiscal year. The findings and/or recommendations of the annual audit will be submitted to the Executive Committee for its consideration and/or appropriate action.

SECTION 4. Life Membership Committee

SECTION 4.a. The Life Membership Committee shall consist of all current “Honorary” life members of Post 364. The Committee will elect a chair to serve for a two (2) year term.

SECTION 4.b. The Life Membership Committee will meet annually, no later than February. The Committee will be charged with reviewing the participation of Post members to determine if any member is/are worthy of “Honorary” Life Membership in the Post. When a member is selected, the chair will make the necessary arrangements for the presentation to be made during the annual installation of officers.

SECTION 5. Reports -All Committee chair, upon the call of the Commander, Executive Committee or membership, shall make reports to the Executive Committee and at the general Post meetings.

SECTION 6. Special Committees -Special committees may be established as deemed necessary by the Post Executive Committee. The Commander shall appoint and charge special committees with their specific duties at the time of their creation. Special committees shall meet upon the call of the Chair. Reports shall be given upon the request of the Commander or the Executive Committee. If a special committee has not completed its assignment by the close of the Legion year within which the committee was formed or continued, it shall, with the approval of the incoming Commander and Executive Committee, continue as originally appointed into the new Legion year.

SECTION 7. Additional Standing Committees -Additional Standing Committee may be established as deemed necessary by the Post Executive Committee and shall consist of members as shall be appointed by the Post Commander.

SECTION 8. Annual Budget -Each officer and/or committee chair who requires Post funds for the conduct of business related to his position, and the responsibilities thereof, will submit an annual budget proposal to the Finance Committee. The annual budget proposal will cover the period of July 1 to June 30, and must be presented to the Finance Committee no later than July 1 of the applicable Legion Year, or, in the case of special committees, within 30 days of their establishment.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Eligibility - Eligibility to membership in this Post shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion. Eligibility shall not constitute acceptability and all applications for membership, including transfers from another Post or requests for reinstatements shall require a vote by the Post. Members accepting applications will verify eligibility by examining the applicant's DD Form 214 or similar document that proves eligibility.

SECTION 2. Ballot - Vote on applications for membership shall be by secret ballot at General Membership meetings. If a third or more members present cast their vote against acceptance of said application, then such application shall be recorded as rejected.

SECTION 3. Results of Ballot - If accepted, the Membership Chair shall notify the applicant, in writing, unless present at the meeting, of acceptance into membership and instruct the applicant when to appear for initiation. If in attendance, the candidate may be initiated the same night. If rejected, the Membership Chair shall notify the applicant, return the dues and inform the applicant that he/she may again be considered for membership after the expiration of six (6) months from the date of such rejection.

SECTION 4. New Members – Application for membership for new members shall be in writing on the prescribed form required by the National organization. Application must be accompanied with one (1) year's dues, and may be voted upon at the same meeting as its presentation to the membership provided eligibility has been established. Applicants who are found ineligible shall be notified. Upon approval of the General Membership, the First Vice Commander shall invite new members to attend the next membership induction ceremony.

SECTION 5. Transfers

SECTION 5.a. A member wishing to transfer his membership from another Post to this Post shall present his current membership card and shall complete the application for transfer as prescribed by the National organization.

SECTION 5.b. If the membership card is for the current membership year, no dues shall be required. No dues shall be transferred from one Post to another Post. Upon acceptance into the Post in accordance with SECTION 2, this article, the transferee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of membership including that of voting in this Post. If rejected, the applicant shall be notified in accordance with SECTION 3, this article.

SECTION 5.c. If the membership card is for the last membership year, but application is made before March 31st of the current year, a transfer request must be accompanied with one (1) year's dues. If applying after April 1 of the current membership year, the applicant must be reinstated and said application for transfer must be accompanied by the current year's dues.

SECTION 6. Reinstatements

Requests for reinstatement must be accompanied by dues for the current membership year and any prior year dues which may be unpaid to maintain continuous membership years.

SECTION 7. Form or Class of Membership - There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership as herein provided.

SECTION 8. Membership Cards - The Commander and elected officers shall be authorized to issue membership cards upon verification of eligibility. Each membership card issued by the Commander or an elected officer shall be reported to the members for their approval. Members reserve the right to approve or disapprove each applicant who receives his/her card in this fashion. If one-third of the members present vote to reject such an applicant, the First Vice Commander or Membership Chair shall notify the applicant in writing and return his/her membership dues.

ARTICLE V – DUES

SECTION 1. Dues Payable -Dues in The American Legion shall be paid annually, the Legion year being from January 1 to December 31, and shall be payable in advance.

SECTION 2. Dues Payment - Annual dues of this Post shall be payable on October 1 of each for the next ensuing calendar year and shall include Department and National per capita. Any member paying annual dues on or before October 1 shall be classified as an “early bird” and such will be noted on his membership card.

SECTION 3. Dues Amount -Annual membership dues shall be established by vote of the general membership in an amount applicable to fulfill the requirements of the current Legion year Department and National capital dues and any additional amount decided.

SECTION 4. Arrears - Any member failing to pay his annual dues by January 1 shall continue to be a member in good standing until February 1, thereafter for two months, the member shall be classed as delinquent. If dues are not paid prior to April 1, the member shall automatically be suspended with no privileges except that of reinstatement by vote of the Post membership and the payment of dues.

SECTION 5. Capita Dues Remittances -The Post shall transmit all Department and National capital dues to Department Headquarters and the Post shall pay District dues for all Post members.

ARTICLE VI – MEETINGS

SECTION 1. Regular (General) Meetings - Regular (or general) meetings of this Post shall be held on the third (3rd) Tuesday of each month and shall be called to order at 7:30 PM.

SECTION 2. Cancellation of Meetings -When a legal holiday occurs on any meeting night or when a general membership, executive committee, or special meeting of the Post must be canceled due to extreme emergency, the Post Commander shall arrange to hold the meeting on another night and shall see that the appropriate membership is so advised.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings - Special meetings of the Post may be called by the Post Commander, a majority of the Executive Committee at their discretion, or upon written request of five (5) members in good standing, provided that at least five (5) days written notice, exclusive of weekends and holidays, shall be given every member with the date, time, and objective of such meeting; and providing that no business shall be transacted at such meeting other than that for which the same is called.

SECTION 4. Conduct of Meetings - All General Membership, Executive Committee, and special meetings of the Post, called under the provisions of these By-Laws, shall be conducted in conformity with The American Legion’s Manual of Ceremonies, to the extent possible and applicable, and Robert’s Rule of Order, Revised. A quorum for General Membership and special meetings shall consist of those members attending such meetings.

SECTION 5. Executive Committee Meetings - Post Executive Committee Meetings shall be held on the first (1st) Tuesday of the month and shall be called to order at 7:30 PM.

ARTICLE VII – VISITORS AND GUESTS

SECTION 1. Admissibility - Any member of any American Legion Post, in good standing, may visit a Post meeting. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall examine the member's card and ascertain whether he is entitled to a seat.

SECTION 2. Speaking Privilege - An official guest of the Post may address the membership within the framework for which he was invited. No visiting member of another Post shall have the right to vote in this Post, but may be allowed to address the membership by a majority vote of those members present. The visiting member shall not speak for or against any motion, nomination or election of officers. Violation of this section shall render the motion, nomination or election null and void.

SECTION 3. Compliance - All visitors must abide by the House Rules.

SECTION 4. Sponsor - Any non-member may visit the Post as the guest of a Post member in good standing, who shall be referred to as the sponsor, within the limitations of the State of Virginia ABC laws. The sponsor will be responsible for ensuring that the guest conducts himself in accordance with the House Rules.

ARTICLE VIII – NOMINATION, ELECTION AND INSTALLATION

SECTION 1. Term of Commander - The Post Commander, if nominated and elected each year shall not exceed a term of three continuous years.

SECTION 2. Nominating Committee Appointment - A nominating committee, consisting of three (3) members, shall be appointed by the Commander no later than the January General Membership meeting.

SECTION 3. Nominating Committee Duties - The nominating committee shall elect its own chair and shall meet as necessary. The Nominating Committee shall present a "slate" of officers to the regular April General Membership meeting. ("Slate" of officers to mean one candidate for each elective office and executive committee member in accordance with Article V, Section 1, Post Constitution.)

SECTION 4. Floor Nominations - The floor shall be open for nominations at the regular April and May meetings. Any member nominated must be present or shall have given written assurance to the nominating member that he will serve if elected.

SECTION 5. Annual Elections - Annual elections shall be in order at the regular May meeting. Voting shall be by written ballot, except when there is no opposition for the office being voted upon, at that time a unanimous ballot of one (1) will be cast.

SECTION 6. Election Process - The Commander shall name a judge and two (2) tellers, who shall distribute the ballots to the members; shall collect the ballots, tally and report to the meeting the results. The chair Commander shall declare the winning candidate as elected. Candidates receiving the most votes are elected.

SECTION 7. Installation - Installation of newly elected and appointed officers shall take place, each year in June.

SECTION 8. Taking Office - The newly installed officers shall take office at the first meeting in July.

SECTION 9. Committee member-At-Large - Terms of office for (At-Large) elected committee members of the Executive Committee will be for a period of three (3) years, except that should the situation arise when every member of the Executive Committee leaves office the same year, the newly elected members will be proportionately elected with one-third of them receiving one-year terms, one-third receiving two-year terms and one-third receiving three-year terms. In this case, the Nominating Committee will identify nominees by the length of term. Any reduction in the number of authorized elected Committee Members-At-Large will only be accomplished through attrition and/or the normal expiration of their term of office.

SECTION 10. Eligibility for Office - All candidates for elected and appointed office of the Post shall furnish appropriate documentation of eligibility for membership in The American Legion to the Nominating Committee or Post Commander. Appropriate documentation shall consist of a DD FORM 214 or an equivalent proof of eligibility.
